

2020 Snapshot

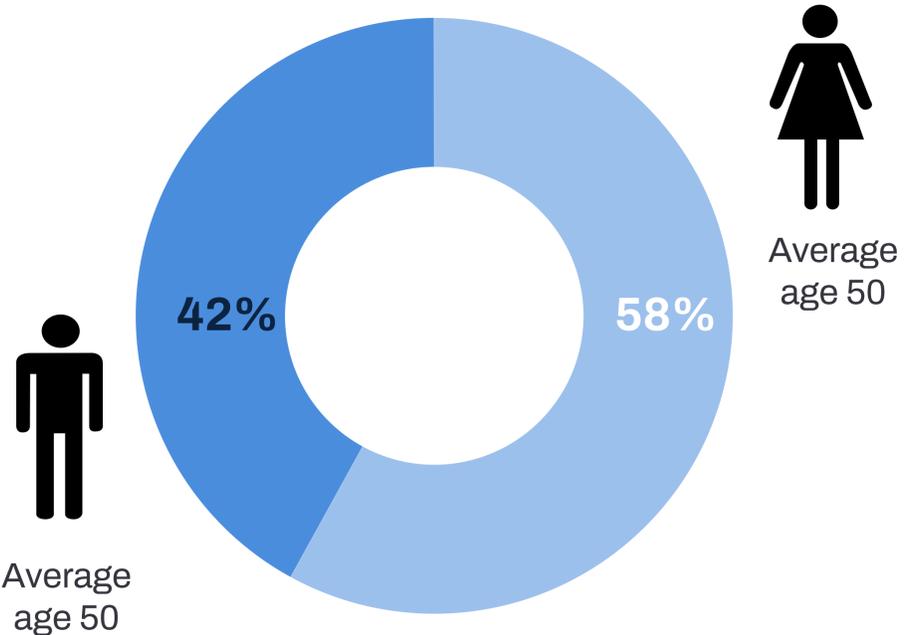

Adults seeking pain management

72 pain services in Australia and NZ

participated in ePPOC and contributed information about

19,505

adults referred for specialist pain management

At referral

42%

had experienced
 their pain for over 5 years

were using opioid medication

83%

had moderate or worse pain
 severity

More than 1 in 3

people were unable to work
 due to pain

After treatment

people reported
overall improvement
 following treatment

56%

of people were able to reduce their opioid dose by at least half

A large proportion of people made clinically meaningful improvement in all areas

